Info:

The Rolex Platinum Ice Blue Baguette Diamond Dial is a luxurious and highly sought-after timepiece in the Rolex lineup. As the name suggests, this watch features a platinum case with a stunning ice blue dial and diamond hour markers.

The dial of the Rolex Platinum Ice Blue Baguette Diamond Dial is particularly eye-catching, with baguette-cut diamond hour markers at 6, 9, and 12 o'clock positions, and round-cut diamond hour markers at the other positions. The diamond markers are set in platinum and complement the icy blue background beautifully.

The watch's case is made of 950 platinum, which is a high-quality and durable material known for its resistance to tarnish and corrosion. The bezel of the watch is also set with round-cut diamonds, adding even more sparkle and luxury to the already impressive timepiece.

Underneath the surface, the Rolex Platinum Ice Blue Baguette Diamond Dial is powered by a self-winding mechanical movement that is accurate and reliable. The watch is also water-resistant up to 100 meters, making it suitable for swimming and shallow diving.

Overall, the Rolex Platinum Ice Blue Baguette Diamond Dial is a stunning luxury watch that is sure to make a statement. It combines high-quality materials, expert craftsmanship, and beautiful design, making it a highly desirable timepiece among watch collectors and enthusiasts.
