Info:

The Rolex Pepsi is a specific version of the Rolex GMT-Master II watch that features a blue and red ceramic bezel, which is meant to resemble the colors of the Pepsi logo. The GMT-Master II is a popular watch among travelers and pilots, known for its ability to display multiple time zones at once.

The Pepsi version of the GMT-Master II is a highly sought-after model among collectors and enthusiasts. It is available in a variety of materials, including stainless steel, gold, and two-tone, and can be customized with different bracelet options.

The GMT-Master II features Rolex's patented "Oyster" case, which provides water resistance up to 100 meters, as well as a "Cerachrom" ceramic bezel that is highly scratch-resistant. The watch is powered by Rolex's proprietary self-winding movement and features a 24-hour hand for displaying a second time zone.

As with all Rolex watches, the Pepsi is a high-end luxury timepiece that is built to last. It may command a premium price on the secondary market, depending on its condition and rarity. It's important to verify the authenticity of any Rolex watch before making a purchase, and to ensure that it is properly serviced and maintained over time to ensure its longevity and accuracy.
